The Twentieth International Irrigation Congress came to a close today with a grand ball and reception. Maj. Richard W. Young, of Salt Lake, was chosen president and Phoenix, Ariz., as the next meeting place of the congress.

Another German airman, August Birkmeir, was killed Friday. He was flying around the aerodrome at Hanover in his monoplane when, in making a curve, one of the wings tipped too far and caused the machine to crash to the ground from a height of 50 feet. He was dead when picked up.

It took Admiral Southerland—who, by-the-way, married a Hopkinsville girl—only a week to clean up the Nicaragua revolution, capturing Gen. Mena and killing Gen. Zeledon, the two leaders. In the scrap four American marines and several hundred rebels were killed. The marines were Ralph V. Babbell, Nevada, Mo.; Clarence H. McGill, Portland, Me.; Harry Pollard, Medway, Mass.; and Chas. H. Durham, Junction City, Ky. The fight lasted only 37 minutes, and took place near Masoga.

The Danger After Grip

lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satisfaction guaranteed by All Druggists.

After Many Years.

John Brill and his father, of Jackson, O., separated 30 years ago, have just found each other in Denver, through a newspaper item. The old man is now 80 years old and the son is a prosperous rancher. The father will live with his son.

Puts End To Bad Habit

Things never look bright to one with "the blues." Ten to one the trouble is a sluggish liver, filling the system with bilious poison, that Dr. King's New Life Pills would expel. Try them. Let the joy of better feelings end "the blues." Best for stomach, liver and kidneys. 25 cts.

Louise In Love.

Kaiser William's only daughter, Louise, is said to be engaged to Prince Ernest August, son of the Duke of Cumberland.

STREET FAKER'S CONFESSION

Declares Watch Chains He Sells to Suckers for 50 Cents Cost Him Less Than Five.

The evening of the Waggoner jubilee in Atchison a street faker stood on the corner and sold watch chains for 50 cents each. Late that night on the depot platform he said to a Globe reporter: "I didn't get in town until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, but I succeeded in selling 48 chains at 50 cents each. I actually cleared more than $15 and didn't get here until the crowd was going away. If I had arrived here early I would have made at least $50 or $100. I can buy all the chains I want for less than 10 cents each. Did you hear the spiel I made? I told the crowd that the chains were made of metal we call Cubanola. I told a long story about how a party of explorers found this strange metal in the wilds of Cuba and how they first thought it was gold. They had it examined and found that while it was not gold it looked the same and could not be told apart except by an expert. Then explaining that only a few of these would be sold in each town simply as an advertisement I proceeded to sell them almost as fast as I could hand them out of my satchel. Often I take out my own chains to look at them and to wonder why people buy them. I venture you can find better chains at your 5 and 10 cent store. A good street faker makes good money. I will average between $50 and $100 a week and don't work very hard, either." The faker owns a 240-acre farm back in Illinois and has sufficient income to keep him the rest of his life. However, he said, there was a certain fascination about working suckers and he would probably keep it up until he died.

CERTAINLY OWNS THE BARK

"Say, pa."
"Well, what?"
"A ship is a bark, isn't it?"
"Certainly."
"Then is a dog a shipowner?"

KNOWS BOY QUESTION.

Thomas Chew, whose advice and counsel is sought in all sections of the country where boys' clubs are in operation or being organized, has been superintendent of the Boys' Club of Fall River, Massachusetts, for twenty-three years. He knows the boy question as few men in this country know it. At eight years of age he worked in the mills at Lancashire, England. Four years later his parents came to America, and the lad went to work in the Fall River mills as a weaver. He managed to educate himself, quit the mills, and was appointed janitor of a branch of the Y. M. C. A. Then came the club organization. Now it is housed in a $50,000 home, with a membership of over 2,000. Seventeen nationalities are on the roll.

QUALIFIED.

Merchant—Aren't you the boy who was in here a week ago?
Applicant—Yes, sir.
Merchant—I thought so. And didn't I tell you then that I wanted an older boy?
Applicant—Yes, sir; that's why I'm here now.—Boston Evening Transcript.

IN FOR IT.

"Always eat the skin of the fruit," ordered the doctor. "The skin contains essentials that you need."
"That may be, doc. But I know I'm going to get my throat all scratched up the first time I try to eat a pineapple with its skin on."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

HIS REASON.

Sillicus—Do you believe in long engagements?
Cynicus—Sure! The longer a man is engaged the less time he has to be married.—Philadelphia

Woman's Greatest Trouble.

Big Sandy, Tenn.—Mrs. Lucy Cantrell, of this place, says: "Every two weeks I had to go to bed and stay there several days. I suffered untold misery. Nothing seemed to help me until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic. Although I had been afflicted with womanly weakness for seven years, Cardui helped me more than anything else ever did. It is surely the best tonic for women on earth." Weakness is woman's greatest trouble. Cardui is woman's greatest medicine, because it overcomes that weakness and brings back strength. In the past 50 years Cardui helped over a million women. Try it for your troubles today.

CLEANING IN POULTRY YARD

Make Sure to Reach All Crevices and Cracks with Thorough Application of Whitewash.

Summer time is the season of house cleaning in the poultry yard. To clean the chicken house, take out roosts, drop boards, nest boxes, feed hoppers, etc., and brush down the walls. With a spray pump or whitewash brush, wash the interior thoroughly, and apply a coat of whitewash with 2 per cent of carbolic acid in the mixture. Make sure that you reach all of the cracks, crevices and knotholes. Remove the upper layer from a dirt floor and fill up with coarse sand or gravel. Wash the windows and muslin curtains and leave open to sun and air.

Go over the house for openings that might make drafts, and repair them. Don't put lousy hens in a clean hen house. If the weather is warm a thorough washing in tobacco water, or a mild solution of sheep dip will kill the lice and not hurt the chickens. At any rate, treat them thoroughly with lice powder. Give the nest boxes a thorough scalding with hot soapwater in which is a handful of salt to the pailful. Strong smelling disinfectants and house killers should not be used about the nest boxes, as the odor is absorbed by the eggs, making them unfit for use.

Brooders and coops which are of no further use this season should be thoroughly cleaned, disinfected and aired before being put away. Water vessels and feed troughs should be scalded daily.

Almost A Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 lbs. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at All Druggists.
